HOW WE MET AND OUR LIFE TODAY

We met in the operating room while fully garbed in scrub suits and had an instant connection. We had a whirlwind romance and wanted to start our lives and family together immediately. We are best friends and believe that love, laughter and respect will take us anywhere.

Our son Liam was born in 2013. He is our light, our joy and our world. We are inseparable. Our weekends are filled with trips to the playground, Central Park, Museum of Natural History, Children's Museum, music lessons, soccer lessons, playdates, the library, brunch dates and birthday parties.

We live in on the Upper West Side of Manhattan. The Upper West Side is known to be family oriented with lots of kid friendly activities. Our residence overlooks the Hudson River so we often look out the window to count the boats on the water. We live close to both Riverside and Central Park where we often play on the weekends.

WE BOTH HAVE ALWAYS WANTED TO ADOPT AND LIAM IS BEYOND THRILLED TO BECOME A BIG BROTHER.

introducing MEGAN

WRITTEN BY SCOTT

LIAM'S BEST FRIEND IS HIS MOMMY. She is so attentive to his every need. She is so concerned about his every activity. She does everything in her power to assure his success. The love pours out of her every day. Plus, he is the best dressed kid on the block. Our future child will certainly enjoy Megan's enormous capacity to love.

Megan is incredibly well rounded.

She was a college basketball player. She was a professional cheerleader. She was a model. She has worked in the business world. And, she started her own children's shoe company. Megan actually learned to sew leather shoes in order to start this business, which is now a large, internationally recognized brand - Megan no longer makes the shoes by hand. She is an inspiration to me and to the rest of our family.

ABOUT MEGAN BY SCOTT CONTINUED

Megan and I met because of her work. She worked for a medical supply company. I'm an orthopedic surgeon. We actually met in the operating room. We were both in scrubs. As you may see, Megan has a big head of red hair. In the OR, it was all tucked up into the surgical hat. When I saw that hair fall out of the hat, I was done - Love instantly!

Megan loves family. She is particularly close to her mother, Mary (Nana). And Nana absolutely loves Liam as she would any addition to our family. She is also very close to my mother, Karen (Grandma K). Megan always puts family first.

Megan means so much to me. I love her and I can't see life without her. She is my anchor. She is my definition of home. Plus, I marvel at her ability to mother. Warm, compassionate, passionate, smart, beautiful, energetic, honest, committed: this is what Megan is made of.

We very much want to adopt a child. We have talked about this for a long time. The simple reason why we could do this is because Megan is a wonderful mother to Liam and will be a wonderful mother to our new addition.

introducing SCOTT

THROUGH MEGAN'S EYES

Scott is a busy orthopedic surgeon at one of the top orthopedic hospitals in the country. It has been a joy to watch him shift from career driven to the role of daddy. He is a hands-on father who is the sun and moon in Liam's world. He always makes sure Liam is happy, active and learning.

Scott is a rocker at heart. If he was not an orthopedic surgeon I think he would be playing drums in a rock band. He also played collegiate soccer and loves taking Liam to music and soccer lessons.

Scott is known to be the emotional one. He weeps during happy and sad movies and has shed many tears of joy during Liam's 3.5 years (and with our decision to expand our family with open adoption).

We are LUCKY TO HAVE AMAZING FAMILY AND FRIENDS

Megan's family live in Illinois but we are blessed to see them almost every month. Liam adores his Nana, Pop-pop and cousins. We love traveling to the Midwest and exposing Liam to small town life. Scott's mom, Grandma K, lives a block away and his family are within an hour drive.

We have a DIVERSE group of friends both near and far. Many we've known since childhood. Although we are consumed with our family life we try to make a lunch dates with friends once a month to stay connected and to catch up.

MEET BIG BROTHER LIAM

Liam is a dynamic, active little boy

He is our heart and soul. He attends preschool 3 days a week where he learns about letters, numbers, reading, gymnastics, song and dance, sign language, Spanish and even yoga. He attends music class and loves to play the drums. Liam also loves sports and is very athletic. He takes soccer lessons and will start hockey and taekwondo this winter.

LIAM HAS A HEART OF GOLD AND ASKS EVERY DAY ABOUT HIS BABY BROTHER OR SISTER.

HOME SWEET HOME

LIAM PLAYING AT THE PARK

We live in a high-rise doorman building on the Upper West Side of Manhattan. The UWS is a beautiful residential neighborhood that sits between Central Park and the Hudson River. We have a big well-equipped playroom that Liam and his building buddies play in daily. One of the top public schools in NYC sits on our street so we spend many of our days at the school playground. The train park on the Hudson River is our summer spot as Liam loves to run in the water.

BOTH CENTRAL PARK AND RIVERSIDE PARK ARE IN OUR NEIGHBORHOOD

WHERE WE LIKE TO PICNIC, MAKE BUBBLES AND PLAY CATCH.

Beyond the glorious parks and scenery, the UWS is full of culture, entertainment and fabulous restaurants. Our Sundays often include brunch at our favorite neighborhood restaurant followed by a trip to The Museum of Natural History (Liam loves the dinosaurs).

GO CHICAGO!

Hobbies & INTERESTS

It's no secret we adore Liam and our Yorkies but outside of them WE HAVE A DEEP FONDNESS FOR THE CHICAGO BLACKHAWKS.

We love hockey and try to attend as many games as we can. We were lucky enough to attend Game 6 in Boston to see the Blackhawks win the Stanley Cup. We are movie buffs as well and try to get to the movies every Saturday afternoon. Music concerts and comedy are also fun date nights for us.

In the summers, we rent a beach house in Long Beach Island and enjoy being beach bums. We love collecting seashells and building sandcastles with Liam.
